Ecomm Promotes Harry Warren to Vice President and General Manager

Industry Expert to Manage the Region's Leading Telecommunications Company

LANCASTER, PA — April 17, 2006 — Ecomm, a leading telecommunications provider, announced today that the company has promoted Harry Warren from sales manager to vice president and general manager. Mr. Warren is a telecommunications industry expert with over 27 years in key sales positions. He will head up Ecomm's Lancaster office that services central Pennsylvania.

Mr. Warren will be responsible for managing Ecomm's highly skilled team of professionals, enhancing the company's value added technology solutions to current customers, and expanding the business to attract new customers. "Companies both large and small in central Pennsylvania need the communications technology that we offer," stated Mr. Warren. "Our goal is to increase Ecomm's leadership role in voice and data solutions by creating strong relationships with local businesses and helping them understand the impact of implementing new and innovative technology. We will then do what we are known for – providing unsurpassed customer service and complete satisfaction."

Mr. Warren will proactively lead the operations, technical, and customer support divisions. He will play a critical role in developing the company's strategic business plans, setting revenue targets, and identifying strategic partners that deliver unparalleled solutions. Mr. Warren will also be hands-on by being actively involved in the recruiting, hiring, and training process.

Additionally, he will conduct competitive analyses to further differentiate Ecomm from the competition, generate networking groups to create new relationships, and monitor industry trends to ensure that the company's customers are taking advantage of the latest technology so they can reduce costs and increase profitability.

Mr. Warren is very well known in the telecommunications industry. He was a top performer winning several awards at Executone and is a member of Inter-Tel's Dealer Advisory Council. During his tenure with Ecomm, Mr. Warren helped the company achieve the top three dealer status among Inter-Tel dealers. His tremendous industry and sales experience will support him in his new role with the company.

"Harry has been one of Ecomm's greatest assets. He is an exceptional performer and will help us continue to grow the Lancaster office," said Gary Ritacco, president of Ecomm. "Ecomm's central Pennsylvania customers will greatly benefit from having Harry head up the office and support their needs. He is committed to total customer service and satisfaction, which has been the core of our success."

Mr. Warren is a graduate of Bloomsburg University. He is very active in the community through his involvement as a coach for Cumberland Valley Youth Basketball and as an annual co-chair for Hospice of Central Pennsylvania Golf Committee.
